Angeion Corporation to Showcase New Leaf Products and Programs at Club Industry 2009

SAINT PAUL, Minn. (Oct. 13, 2009) — Angeion Corporation (NASDAQ: ANGN) announced that it will be showcasing its New Leaf products and programs at the Club Industry 2009 exhibition, booth #1403, October 15-17, 2009, at McCormick Place, in Chicago.

New Leaf helps consumers manage their weight, increase fitness, and improve performance by providing a personalized roadmap to efficiently reach each individual's goal through exercise and nutrition plans based on their measured resting and exercise metabolism.

"We're looking forward to sharing our growing line of New Leaf products and features at this year's Club Industry exhibition," said Rodney A. Young, Angeion's President and Chief Executive Officer. "As we all begin to assume more responsibility for our own health, New Leaf's Active Metabolic Training<sup>SM</sup> promises real results. Additionally, attendees will have an opportunity to preview our latest enhancements to eNewLeaf<sup>TM</sup>, our expanding online training and tracking community."

Club Industry is an annual trade show and conference serving the commercial fitness market. The event includes an exhibit hall featuring the latest products, services, and technologies available to fitness professionals.
